

Smart Solutions for Railways

PROBLEM STATEMENT :

Public now a days are busy with their hectic schedule and the passengers in the train want a sophisticated traveling and also they wanted to ensure the extra safety.

- Problems we may face in railways are many, from maintenance to processing by passengers and railway officials.
- The problem mainly occurs in railway system and rail route.
- The issue is signal detection and monitoring the track of the train is little difficult and public waiting on the halt for a long time.
- The issue mainly occurs between the train and the control room.
- The issue occurs when there is a fault during manual monitoring .
- The problem we fixed is important to prevent the life and to save the time of people.